

AEROSPACE & AVIATION

LAUNCHING YOUR FUTURE

IF YOUR HUNT FOR A CAREER LED YOU TO AEROSPACE & AVIATION, WE'RE CONFIDENT YOU'LL FIND AN OUT-OF-THIS-WORLD JOB AFTER HIGH SCHOOL. THIS INFO SHEET WILL HELP YOU CONTINUE EXPLORING THE POSSIBILITIES, SO LET'S LIFT OFF!

What's It Like to Work in Aerospace & Aviation Careers?

Aerospace and aviation professionals work to ensure safety and success while carrying out operations to fly either within or outside earth's atmosphere. People in this field are curious about our world and beyond.

People in this field may build, fly or service aircraft, or they may have some other related job, including creating technology for aircraft or working for airlines to assist passengers.

Examples of Careers in Aerospace & Aviation

- Drone pilot
- Electrician
- Flight attendant
- Sheet metal worker
- Aerospace engineer
- Aircraft mechanic and servicer technician
- Machinist
- Drafter

Read Stories About Real Kansas Professionals Working in Aerospace & Aviation

Follow the QR code to discover how others across the state grew careers in this industry. You'll find advice for how to prepare at your age, what level of education may be required and more.

Watch Aerospace & Aviation Professionals in Action

Have you seen our Cool Careers series? Each episode highlights an exciting job right here in Kansas. These episodes feature positions within the Aerospace & Aviation industry — follow the QR code, then buckle up and watch!

- Episode #2: Drone Pilot
- Episode #4: Robotics and Automation Engineer
- Episode #6: Electrical Process Engineer
- Episode #11: Pilot
- Episode #14: Sheet Metal Mechanic

AGRICULTURE & ANIMAL HEALTH

HERDING DREAMS, PLANTING FUTURES

IF YOUR HUNT FOR A CAREER LED YOU TO AGRICULTURE & ANIMAL HEALTH, WE'RE CONFIDENT YOU'LL FIND AN EGG-STRA SPECIAL JOB AFTER HIGH SCHOOL. THIS INFO SHEET WILL HELP YOU CONTINUE EXPLORING THE POSSIBILITIES, SO LET'S MOO-VE INTO THE DETAILS!

What's It Like to Work in Agriculture & Animal Health Careers?

Agriculture professionals supply us with food, protect our environment and tend to livestock. People in this field often enjoy the outdoors and working with their hands.

Animal health professionals diagnose, treat and generally care for animals of all breeds. People in this field enjoy caring for living things.

Agricultural professionals wear a lot of different hats — from mechanics to business owners — and often think on their feet. People in this field work to protect natural resources while providing valuable goods and services.

Examples of Careers in Agriculture & Animal Health

- Animal caretaker
- Biotechnologist
- Forest and conservation worker
- Veterinary assistant and lab animal caretaker
- Agricultural equipment operator
- Agronomist
- Land surveyor
- Landscaper and groundskeeper
- Farmworker

Read Stories About Real Kansas Professionals Working in Agriculture & Animal Health

Follow the QR code to discover how others across the state grew careers in this industry. You'll find advice for how to prepare at your age, what level of education may be required and more.

Watch Agriculture & Animal Health Professionals in Action

Have you seen our Cool Careers series? Each episode highlights an exciting job right here in Kansas. These episodes feature positions within the Agriculture & Animal Health industry — follow the QR code, then take a look!

- Episode #15: Agronomist
- Episode #16: Dairy Farmer

BUSINESS & ADMINISTRATIVE

THE COMPANY BACKBONE

IF YOUR HUNT FOR A CAREER LED YOU TO BUSINESS & ADMINISTRATIVE, WE'RE CONFIDENT YOU'LL FIND A BOARDROOM-WORTHY JOB AFTER HIGH SCHOOL. THIS INFO SHEET WILL HELP YOU CONTINUE EXPLORING THE POSSIBILITIES, SO LET'S GET DOWN TO BUSINESS!

What's It Like to Work in Business & Administrative Careers?

Business and administrative workers use organization, independence and creativity to oversee a variety of tasks. Often juggling multiple jobs at once, people in this field help keep their companies running.

Business and administrative positions are often referred to as "office jobs" and can range from entry to executive level, and from financial professionals to operations managers to receptionists.

Examples of Careers in Business & Administrative

- Bookkeeper, accountant and auditing clerk
- Financial clerk
- Graphic designer
- Real estate agent
- General and operations manager
- Paralegal and legal assistant
- Accountant and auditor

Read Stories About Real Kansas Professionals Working in Business & Administrative

Follow the QR code to discover how others across the state grew careers in this industry. You'll find advice for how to prepare at your age, what level of education may be required and more.

Watch Business & Administrative Professionals in Action

Have you seen our Cool Careers series? Each episode highlights an exciting job right here in Kansas. These episodes feature positions within the Business & Administrative industry — follow the QR code, then take a look!

- Episode #1: Cybersecurity Analyst
- Episode #12: Distribution Support Specialist
- Episode #16: Dairy Farmer
- Episode #21: HR Specialist

CONSTRUCTION

BUILDING SUCCESS

IF YOUR HUNT FOR A CAREER LED YOU TO CONSTRUCTION, WE'RE CONFIDENT YOU'LL FIND A JOB AFTER HIGH SCHOOL THAT'S BUILT TO LAST. THIS INFO SHEET WILL HELP YOU CONTINUE EXPLORING THE POSSIBILITIES, SO LET'S LAY THE FOUNDATION!

What's It Like to Work in Construction Careers?

Construction workers design, build and fix structures we use every day, like roads and buildings.

Jobs in this industry encompass a lot of different roles, such as carpenters, drafters, equipment operators, supervisors, engineers, designers and more.

Examples of Careers in Construction

- Carpenter
- Civil engineer
- Electrician
- Plumber, pipefitter and steamfitter
- Painter
- Architect
- Construction laborer

Read Stories About Real Kansas Professionals Working in Construction

Follow the QR code to discover how others across the state grew careers in this industry. You'll find advice for how to prepare at your age, what level of education may be required and more.

Watch Construction Professionals in Action

Have you seen our Cool Careers series? Each episode highlights an exciting job right here in Kansas. These episodes feature positions within the Construction industry — follow the QR code, then take a look!

- Episode #2: Drone Pilot
- Episode #3: Plumber
- Episode #5: Heavy Equipment Technician
- Episode #9: Welder
- Episode #10: Carpenter
- Episode #26: Civil Engineer
- Episode #27: Land Surveyor

CULINARY & FOOD SERVICE

RECIPE FOR SUCCESS

IF YOUR HUNT FOR A CAREER LED YOU TO CULINARY & FOOD SERVICE, WE'RE CONFIDENT YOU'LL FIND A SOUPER-STAR JOB AFTER HIGH SCHOOL. THIS INFO SHEET WILL HELP YOU CONTINUE EXPLORING THE POSSIBILITIES, SO LET'S SPICE THINGS UP!

What's It Like to Work in Culinary & Food Service Careers?

Culinary professionals are passionate about food. Whether working behind the scenes in the kitchen or one-on-one with guests, people in this field provide a positive experience to others.

Culinary professionals may work in hotels, bars, healthcare settings, schools, tourism venues and other places where food and drink are served.

Examples of Careers in Culinary & Food Service

- Baker
- Chef and head cook
- Restaurant manager
- Server (restaurant)
- Food preparation worker
- Event planner

Read Stories About Real Kansas Professionals Working in Culinary & Food Service

Follow the QR code to discover how others across the state grew careers in this industry. You'll find advice for how to prepare at your age, what level of education may be required and more.

Watch Culinary & Food Service Professionals in Action

Have you seen our Cool Careers series? Each episode highlights an exciting job right here in Kansas. These episodes feature positions within the Culinary & Food Service industry — follow the QR code, then get cooking!

- Episode #16: Dairy Farmer
- Episode #19: Restaurant Manager

ENERGY

LEADING THE CHARGE

IF YOUR HUNT FOR A CAREER LED YOU TO ENERGY, WE'RE CONFIDENT YOU'LL FIND AN ELECTRIFYING JOB AFTER HIGH SCHOOL. THIS INFO SHEET WILL HELP YOU CONTINUE EXPLORING THE POSSIBILITIES, SO LET'S DIG DEEPER!

What's It Like to Work in Energy?

Energy professionals strive to improve our lives using new discoveries. Whether it's maintaining our power grid or protecting the security and safety of our data, professionals in this field are concerned with the smooth operation of systems people need to live and do their jobs every day.

Examples of Careers in Energy

- Civil engineer
- Electrical engineering technician
- Electrical line installer and repairer
- Energy auditor
- Oil field technician
- Powerplant technologist
- Wind turbine technician

Read Stories About Real Kansas Professionals Working in Energy

Follow the QR code to discover how others across the state grew careers in this industry. You'll find advice for how to prepare at your age, what level of education may be required and more.

Watch Energy Professionals in Action

Have you seen our Cool Careers series? Each episode highlights an exciting job right here in Kansas. These episodes feature positions in the Energy industry — follow the QR code, then take a look!

- Episode #8: Wind Turbine Technician
- Episode #26: Civil Engineer

MANUFACTURING

FROM PROTOTYPE TO PRODUCTION

IF YOUR HUNT FOR A CAREER LED YOU TO MANUFACTURING, WE'RE CONFIDENT YOU'LL FIND A STRONG-AS-STEEL JOB AFTER HIGH SCHOOL. THIS INFO SHEET WILL HELP YOU CONTINUE EXPLORING THE POSSIBILITIES — LET'S TURN IDEAS INTO REALITY.

What's It Like to Work in Manufacturing?

Manufacturing workers produce goods using manual labor, machines, technology and other tools.

Jobs in this industry encompass a lot of different roles, including mechanics, engineers, inspectors, woodworkers, welders, technicians, managers and more.

Examples of Careers in Manufacturing

- Computer-controlled tool operator
- Cost estimator
- Diesel service technician
- Industry machinery mechanic
- Woodworker
- Machinist

Read Stories About Real Kansas Professionals Working in Manufacturing

Follow the QR code to discover how others across the state built careers in this industry. You'll find advice for how to prepare at your age, what level of education may be required and more.

Watch Manufacturing Professionals in Action

Have you seen our Cool Careers series? Each episode highlights an exciting job right here in Kansas. These episodes feature positions within the Manufacturing industry — follow the QR code, then take a look!

- Episode #4: Robotics and Automation Engineer
- Episode #6: Electrical Process Engineer
- Episode #12: Distribution Support Specialist
- Episode #14: Sheet Metal Mechanic
- Episode #16: Dairy Farmer
- Episode #23: Commercial Driver
- Episode #28: Advanced Manufacturing Technician

MEDICAL

CREATING A HEALTHIER TOMORROW

IF YOUR HUNT FOR A CAREER LED YOU TO MEDICAL, ALL VITAL SIGNS POINT TO YOU FINDING A JOB IN HEALTH CARE AFTER HIGH SCHOOL. THIS INFO SHEET WILL HELP YOU CONTINUE EXPLORING THE POSSIBILITIES, SO LET'S PRESCRIBE YOUR PATH TO SUCCESS!

What's It Like to Work in Medical?

Medical and healthcare professionals work to improve the lives of others. When people think of medicine, they often think of doctors, but there are lots of different careers in this field that require varying types of education and training.

Medical and healthcare professionals provide routine care like taking vitals or drawing blood, or help with urgent health issues at specialty clinics. They care for patients before, during and after procedures and treatments, and sometimes they also assist the patient's family members.

Examples of Careers in Medical

- Biotechnologist
- Dental hygienist
- Family medicine doctor
- Pharmacist
- Certified nursing assistant
- Healthcare social worker
- Medical imaging technologist
- Phlebotomist
- Physical therapy assistant

Read Stories About Real Kansas Professionals Working in Medical

Follow the QR code to discover how others across the state grew careers in this industry. You'll find advice for how to prepare at your age, what level of education may be required and more.

Watch Medical Professionals in Action

Have you seen our Cool Careers series? Each episode highlights an exciting job right here in Kansas. These episodes feature positions in the Medical industry — follow the QR code, then give them a checkup!

- Episode #13: Medical Imaging Technician
- Episode #18: Registered Nurse
- Episode #20: Mental Health Provider
- Episode #25: Family Medicine Doctor

PUBLIC SERVICE

THE UNSUNG HEROES OF OUR COMMUNITIES

IF YOUR HUNT FOR A CAREER LED YOU TO PUBLIC SERVICE, WE'RE CONFIDENT YOUR DESIRE TO HELP OTHERS WILL LAND YOU A SUCCESSFUL JOB AFTER HIGH SCHOOL. THIS INFO SHEET WILL HELP YOU CONTINUE EXPLORING THE POSSIBILITIES, SO LET'S DIVE INTO MAKING A DIFFERENCE!

What's It Like to Work in Public Service?

Public service professionals sometimes work in high-stress, fast-paced environments to protect, serve or educate others. People in this field may put their own safety on the line to help others. Public service professionals are often hired by states, cities, counties or school districts.

Teachers, firefighters, community planners, road maintenance workers, members of the military and many others keep our cities, counties, state and country functioning properly.

Examples of Careers in Public Service

- Correctional officer
- EMT and paramedic
- Firefighter
- Forensic science technician
- Library technician
- Elementary school teacher
- Teacher assistant and paraeducator

Read Stories About Real Kansas Professionals Working in Public Service

Follow the QR code to discover how others across the state launched careers in this industry. You'll find advice for how to prepare at your age, what level of education may be required and more.

Watch Public Service Professionals in Action

Have you seen our Cool Careers series? Each episode highlights an exciting job right here in Kansas. These episodes feature positions in the Public Service industry — follow the QR code, then take a look!

- Episode #7: Elementary Teacher
- Episode #17: Early Childhood Teacher
- Episode #18: Registered Nurse
- Episode #20: Mental Health Provider
- Episode #22: Emergency Dispatcher

SERVICE

PEOPLE HELPING PEOPLE

IF YOUR HUNT FOR A CAREER LED YOU TO SERVICE, YOUR KNACK FOR MAKING THE WORLD A BETTER PLACE WILL LAND YOU A GREAT JOB AFTER HIGH SCHOOL. THIS INFO SHEET WILL HELP YOU CONTINUE EXPLORING THE POSSIBILITIES, SO LET'S MAKE THINGS HAPPEN!

What's It Like to Work in Service?

Service workers enjoy being around people. Spending most of their days interacting with others, service workers provide information, assistance or labor of some kind to those they're helping.

Service workers can have a variety of skills and training, depending on the specific field they're working in, whether that's banking, transportation, retail or others.

Examples of Careers in Service

- Hair Stylist
- Cashier
- Childcare worker
- Customer service representative
- Retail Store Manager
- Delivery truck driver
- Sales manager

Read Stories About Real Kansas Professionals Working in Service

Follow the QR code to discover how others across the state grew careers in this industry. You'll find advice for how to prepare at your age, what level of education may be required and more.

Watch Service Professionals in Action

Have you seen our Cool Careers series? Each episode highlights an exciting job right here in Kansas. These episodes feature positions in the Service industry — follow the QR code, then help yourself!

- Episode #3: Plumber
- Episode #5: Heavy Equipment Technician
- Episode #19: Restaurant Manager
- Episode #21: HR Specialist
- Episode #23: Commercial Driver
- Episode #24: IT Network Installer

TECHNOLOGY

CODING A NEW WORLD

IF YOUR HUNT FOR A CAREER LED YOU TO TECHNOLOGY, WE'RE CONFIDENT YOU'LL LAND A HIGH-SPEED JOB AFTER HIGH SCHOOL. THIS INFO SHEET WILL HELP YOU CONTINUE EXPLORING THE POSSIBILITIES, SO LET'S PLUG IN!

What's It Like to Work in Technology?

Technology professionals strive to improve our lives with new discoveries. Ranging across many career categories, people in this field inspect, repair and operate computers and other equipment in many different situations.

Examples of Careers in Technology

- Computer programmer
- Digital marketer
- Information security analyst
- Meteorologist
- Information security analyst
- Robotics engineer
- Computer-controlled tool operator

Read Stories About Real Kansas Professionals Working in Technology

Follow the QR code to discover how others across the state launched careers in this industry. You'll find advice for how to prepare at your age, what level of education may be required and more.

Watch Technology Professionals in Action

Have you seen our Cool Careers series? Each episode highlights an exciting job right here in Kansas. These episodes feature positions in the Technology industry — follow the QR code, then get wired!

- Episode #1: Cybersecurity Analyst
- Episode #2: Drone Pilot
- Episode #4: Robotics and Automation Engineer
- Episode #6: Electrical Process Engineer
- Episode #13: Medical Imaging Technician
- Episode #24: IT Network Installer

TRANSPORTATION

IN THE FAST LANE

IF YOUR HUNT FOR A CAREER LED YOU TO TRANSPORTATION, THE SKY IS THE LIMIT ON TAKING OFF WITH A JOB AFTER HIGH SCHOOL. THIS INFO SHEET WILL HELP YOU CONTINUE EXPLORING THE POSSIBILITIES, SO LET'S SHIFT GEARS!

What's It Like to Work in Transportation?

Transportation workers help keep our world moving! Ranging across many career categories, people in this industry use land, air and sea to move people, products and supplies from one location to another.

From airline pilots and plane mechanics to passenger train and delivery truck drivers, transportation workers do their best to ensure the timely arrival of whatever they're moving.

Examples of Careers in Transportation

- Aerospace engineer
- Air traffic controller
- Airline pilot
- Land surveyor
- Diesel service technician
- Shuttle driver and chauffeur
- Logistician

Read Stories About Real Kansas Professionals Working in Transportation

Follow the QR code to discover how others across the state launched careers in this industry. You'll find advice for how to prepare at your age, what level of education may be required and more.

Watch Transportation Professionals in Action

Have you seen our Cool Careers series? Each episode highlights an exciting job right here in Kansas. These episodes feature positions in the Transportation industry — follow the QR code, then get going!

- Episode #5: Heavy Equipment Technician
- Episode #11: Pilot
- Episode #12: Distribution Support Specialist
- Episode #23: Commercial Driver
- Episode #26: Civil Engineer
- Episode #27: Land Surveyor

