

HIREPATHS™ CAREER SCAVENGER HUNT

Your Kids. Endless Career Options.

Spend some time learning about career options for people living in Kansas.
Use this scavenger hunt to help you explore the personal stories on HirePaths.com.

Version 1

1. Go to HirePaths.com/profile. Look at the blue Profiles by Industry box on the right. Here you'll see a list of the nine industries featured on HirePaths.com. Industries are broad groups of businesses that make things or provide services. Which three industries would you like to learn more about? Write your three answers here:

1.

2.

3.

2. Click on Medical to start exploring. Read or watch the stories until you find the person who got their start in health care as a physical therapy assistant at Stormont Vail Health.

3. Click on Agriculture and Animal Health. Which profile features someone who took a lot of agriculture classes in high school, and now owns his own farming and cattle operation, Sand Creek Ranch?

4. Click on Aerospace and Aviation. Which woman working in aviation has found success as a sheet metal fabricator for the legendary Citation Latitude jet?

5. Click on Construction and Manufacturing. Which employee of A.M Cohron & Son Inc. started in construction right out of high school and is now learning to operate a crane?

6. Click on Energy and Technology. Which employee of Enel Green Power and graduate of Cloud County Community College encourages students who want to be wind technicians to learn as much as possible about Microsoft programs, Google Suite and anything else that might help gather or manage data and information?

7. Click on Culinary and Food Service. Which U.S. Army veteran got inspired to open a Haitian cuisine restaurant by visiting a well-known Haitian restaurant in Washington, D.C.?

8. Click on Service. One of the people featured in this section has the long-term goal of becoming a medical examiner who can do autopsies to determine the cause of death.

9. Click on Public Service. Which person was sworn in as a full-time police officer at the young age of 21, after serving as a police service aide and graduating from Garden City Community College?

10. Click on Business and Administrative. Which business owner got his start working as an auto detailer in high school?

11. Look through the profiles under the three industry categories you wrote down in question #1. Pick at least three stories that sound interesting to you as a possible career. Read those profiles closely. For each story, write down the profile subject's name, their job title and why this job interests you:

STORY #1

Person's name:

Professional title:

Why does this job interest you?

STORY #2

Person's name:

Professional title:

Why does this job interest you?

STORY #3

Person's name:

Professional title:

Why does this job interest you?

ANSWER KEY

Version 1

1. Go to HirePaths.com/profile. Look at the blue Profiles by Industry box on the right. Here you'll see a list of the nine industries featured on HirePaths.com. Industries are broad groups of businesses that make things or provide services. Which three industries would you like to learn more about? Write your three answers here:

1.

2.

3.

2. Click on Medical to start exploring. Read or watch the stories until you find the person who got their start in health care as a physical therapy assistant at Stormont Vail Health.

HEATHER BREWER

3. Click on Agriculture and Animal Health. Which profile features someone who took a lot of agriculture classes in high school, and now owns his own farming and cattle operation, Sand Creek Ranch?

MATTHEW HILDEBRAND

4. Click on Aerospace and Aviation. Which woman working in aviation has found success as a sheet metal fabricator for the legendary Citation Latitude jet?

CRYSTAL GRIMMETT

5. Click on Construction and Manufacturing. Which employee of A.M Cohron & Son Inc. started in construction right out of high school and is now learning to operate a crane?

CODY CLANCY

6. Click on Energy and Technology. Which employee of Enel Green Power and graduate of Cloud County Community College encourages students who want to be wind technicians to learn as much as possible about Microsoft programs, Google Suite and anything else that might help gather or manage data and information?

CHANCE JACOBSON

7. Click on Culinary and Food Service. Which U.S. Army veteran got inspired to open a Haitian cuisine restaurant by visiting a well-known Haitian restaurant in Washington, D.C.?

MARTINE CHERY-HILARIE

8. Click on Service. One of the people featured in this section has the long-term goal of becoming a medical examiner who can do autopsies to determine the cause of death.

GWENDELRAE HICKS

9. Click on Public Service. Which person was sworn in as a full-time police officer at the young age of 21, after serving as a police service aide and graduating from Garden City Community College?

EMMA BAÑUELOS

10. Click on Business and Administrative. Which business owner got his start working as an auto detailer in high school?

TROY ROSS

11. Look through the profiles under the three industry categories you wrote down in question #1. Pick at least three stories that sound interesting to you as a possible career. Read those profiles closely. For each story, write down the profile subject's name, their job title and why this job interests you:

STORY #1

Person's name:

Professional title:

Why does this job interest you?

STORY #2

Person's name:

Professional title:

Why does this job interest you?

STORY #3

Person's name:

Professional title:

Why does this job interest you?