

HIREPATHS™ CAREER SCAVENGER HUNT

Your Kids. Endless Career Options.

Spend some time learning about career options for people living in Kansas. Use this scavenger hunt to help you explore all the stories about interesting jobs on HirePaths.com.

Version 2

1. Go to HirePaths.com/profile. Look at the blue Real Success Stories by industry box on the right. Here you'll see a list of the 12 industries featured on HirePaths.com. Industries are broad groups of businesses that make things or provide services. Which three industries would you like to learn more about? Write your three answers here:

1.

2.

3.

2. For the following questions, click on the industry needed, then read or watch the stories until you find the person each prompt is looking for.

Click on Medical to start exploring. Who started their career journey as a barber before following in their mother's footsteps and becoming a nurse at Stormont Vail Health?

Click on Agriculture and Animal Health. Which profile features someone who has always loved animals and uses their passion to oversee the entire animal collection at Lee Richardson Zoo?

Click on Aerospace and Aviation. Which person's job involves talking with students in school about all the career paths available at Spirit AeroSystems?

Click on Construction. Which Midwest Minerals employee started with the company back in 1995 and is now the business's president?

Click on Manufacturing. Which boat-building apprentice wanted to be a sea captain when he was younger?

Click on Energy. Which employee of Milligan Wind Farm chose to write a high school paper about wind turbine technicians and then became one?

Click on Technology. Who joined the Army Reserve with his two brothers after graduating from high school and now works for UPS and the after-school program Real Mean Real Leaders?

Click on Culinary and Food Service. Which woman has worked as a server, trained at culinary school and worked for the Red Robin chain in Las Vegas before moving back to Kansas to become an executive chef?

Click on Service. Who wants to make their clients feel confident and enjoys flexing creative muscles at work?

Click on Public Service. Which person hopped around trying many different jobs before finding their passion as an elementary school teacher?

Click on Business and Administrative. Which professional has been with HAMM Companies since the Monday after their high school graduation?

Click on Transportation. Who grew up in Mexico, has always loved children and enjoys working with them every day as a bus paraeducator?

- 3. Look through the Real Success Stories under the three industry categories you wrote down in question #1. Pick at least three stories that sound interesting to you as a possible career. Read those profiles closely. For each story, write down the profile subject's name, their job title and why this job interests you.

STORY #1

Person's name:

Professional title:

Why does this job interest you?

STORY #2

Person's name:

Professional title:

Why does this job interest you?

STORY #3

Person's name:

Professional title:

Why does this job interest you?

ANSWER KEY

Version 2

1. Go to HirePaths.com/profile. Look at the blue Real Success Stories by industry box on the right. Here you'll see a list of the 12 industries featured on HirePaths.com. Industries are broad groups of businesses that make things or provide services. Which three industries would you like to learn more about? Write your three answers here:

1.

2.

3.

2. For the following questions, click on the industry needed, then read or watch the stories until you find the person each prompt is looking for.

Click on Medical to start exploring. Who started their career journey as a barber before following in their mother's footsteps and becoming a nurse at Stormont Vail Health?

MELINDA HERRIG

Click on Agriculture and Animal Health. Which profile features someone who has always loved animals and uses their passion to oversee the entire animal collection at Lee Richardson Zoo?

PABLO HOLGUIN

Click on Aerospace and Aviation. Which person's job involves talking with students in school about all the career paths available at Spirit AeroSystems?

ALEX HAMEL

Click on Construction. Which Midwest Minerals employee started with the company back in 1995 and is now the business's president?

STEVE SLOAN

Click on Manufacturing. Which boat-building apprentice wanted to be a sea captain when he was younger?

MAVERICK AGGSON

Click on Energy. Which employee of Milligan Wind Farm chose to write a high school paper about wind turbine technicians and then became one?

COLIN SIKES

Click on Technology. Who joined the Army Reserve with his two brothers after graduating from high school and now works for UPS and the after-school program Real Mean Real Leaders?

JONAS CRUZ

Click on Culinary and Food Service. Which woman has worked as a server, trained at culinary school and worked for the Red Robin chain in Las Vegas before moving back to Kansas to become an executive chef?

KATI BUTRICO

Click on Service. Who wants to make their clients feel confident and enjoys flexing creative muscles at work?

HALEY RAPP

Click on Public Service. Which person hopped around trying many different jobs before finding their passion as an elementary school teacher?

KRISTIN RAY

Click on Business and Administrative. Which professional has been with HAMM Companies since the Monday after their high school graduation?

RAMON GONZALES

Click on Transportation. Who grew up in Mexico, has always loved children and enjoys working with them every day as a bus paraeducator?

VERONICA LARA

- 3. Look through the Real Success Stories under the three industry categories you wrote down in question #1. Pick at least three stories that sound interesting to you as a possible career. Read those profiles closely. For each story, write down the profile subject's name, their job title and why this job interests you.

STORY #1

Person's name:

Professional title:

Why does this job interest you?

STORY #2

Person's name:

Professional title:

Why does this job interest you?

STORY #3

Person's name:

Professional title:

Why does this job interest you?